Time at last sets all things even. Dreyfus and Zola are both being vindicated.

If the white men of North Carolina win the next legislature, Governor Russell will be like a bump on a log, big enough to attract attention but not to do any harm.

When Captain Dreyfus was degraded and banished in 1895 he said his "innocence would be shown within three years." And that's the way it looks now, with a throat-cutting confession of forged testimony against him.

In reply to the statement that Secretary Alger says "there is nothing to investigate," the Baltimore Herald remarks that "the rank and file of the army beg leave to differ from him." They differ from him without "begging leave."

The Populists who have nominated Hobson for President in 1900, should have waited until they see how he succeeds in raising the C. Colon. Then they would know whether they could count on his wind.

The territory seizing papers talk about the "greater America." Adding territory may make America larger, but not greater. A better proof of the greatness might be in declining to seize, when the temptation may be great.

If the negroes had an absolute and irresistible majority in North Carolina, how many white men would be in office? This is a conundrum we would like some of the white skins who are working to put the negro over the white man to take a pass at.

If Secretary Alger had any Presidential aspirations he has probably tucked them away for a while. When his picture was exhibited during a performance in the opera house in Wilmington, Del., a few nights ago, the audience hissed and raised such a pandemonium that it had to be removed.

The New York Sun remarks that whatever the criticisms on the management of the war may be they cannot "dim the lustre of our victory over Spain." On the contrary they add to the lustre when it is remembered that the victory was won, not only over Spain but over the grossest mismanagement by the War Department.

Last week the Monroe Enquirer entered upon its twenty-sixth year, and has well earned the liberal patronage it has received. It is a good paper, a good gleaner of the news, and ably and sprightly edited. It has always been an outspoken defender of Democracy, but in addition to this is now doing splendid service for white supremacy. We present it the STAR's compliments and good wishes.

Young Jim Blaine achieved notoriety at Honolulu by tumbling down stairs because he was top heavy, and cutting off a Chinaman's pig tail. This might have been funny for Jim, but it was a serious business for John Chinaman. Paradoxical as it may seem a Chinaman without a cue feels curious.

Foreign missionaries and converts are to be protected in China now. The Emperor has come to the conclusion that killing them costs too much land.

Republicans Will Nominate.

The Republicans of the Third Congressional district have decided that they cannot stomach Fowler, and will hold a convention at Fayetteville, Sept. 29th, to nominate a straight Republican candidate. S. H. Buchanan, of Moore, and A. H. Slocumb, of Cumberland, are aspirants. The candidate, however, ought to be a negro, as the negroes poll nine-tenths of the Republican vote of the district.

Dempsey Council.

Dempsey Council was before Justice J. M. McGowan yesterday, charged with three offences—assault and battery with a deadly weapon, forcible trespass and disorderly conduct. There was not probable cause in the first case and not sufficient evidence in the second, so these charges were dismissed. The offender was found guilty of disorderly conduct and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

THE SEASIDE SEASON.

A Number of Excursions the Past Week Bringing Crowds of People to the Seashore.

ENTERTAINMENTS THIS WEEK.

Rehearsals in Progress for a Benefit Concert at the Opera House—Dances at Club Houses on the Beach. Theatrical Season Begins.

By odds the most uneventful week of Wilmington's seaside season is that just closed. There has not been a single club or private social function of any kind. The people are apparently resting on their oars in the midst of a calm before the Fall and Winter social and theatrical season which gives abundant promise of unusual gaiety. However, the week has not been without an abundance of pleasure for visitors and home people. There have been a number of big excursions to the city which have brought hosts of people to the city and both beaches. Then, too, there are a large number of regular guest, on Wrightsville beach. So many that the Seashore Hotel management, instead of closing September 1st as they had intended, now announces that they will be open for guests indefinitely. Capt. Jenkin's hotel on Carolina Beach was closed however last Thursday and he and his family have returned to Salem.

Hanover Seaside Club, on Carolina Beach, was the only club which gave a hop during the week. The coming week, however, several of the clubs will arrange for hops. Atlantic Club has decided to give one of the biggest dances of the season Friday night.

Within a few weeks many Wilmingtonians prominent in social circles will have returned to the city from Summer outings, and the Wilmington Musical Association, the Theatrical Association, Daughters of the Confederacy, Colonial Dames, Sorosis, the three popular german clubs and other organizations which have been so active in past seasons will again resume active operations and augment the round of social pleasures which are likely to distinguish the Fall and Winter season.

A notable incident connected with the rehearsals now in progress for the Miss Norma Foster Benefit Concert was that at the armory last Wednesday night. A male quartette, composed of Mr. C. H. Cooper, Mr. R. F. Fowler and Messrs. A. S. and H. K. Holden met there with Mr. Ed. Munson as accompanist, to practice music for the concert. After the rehearsal Capt. J. C. Smith, of the Compton, came up with his improved graphophone and the quartette sang two popular selections into the receiving tube, so that Capt. Smith is now able to reproduce them with wonderful accuracy. The selections were "Kerry Dance", by Malloy, and "Annie Laurie."

The rehearsals for the benefit concert are progressing quite satisfactorily. As has been announced, September 20th is the date and the Y. M. C. A. auditorium the place for the event. There will be music and recitations by some of the city's best talent. Then, too, there will be refreshments and other features of entertainment. To say that Miss Jannie Chasten is the controlling spirit in the arrangements is a sufficient guarantee that it will be a splendid success.

Lessee Schloss and Manager James H. Cowan of the Wilmington Opera House have announced the following assistants in the various departments of work: Head usher, Mr. C. H. Cooper; stage manager, Mr. Henry Newman; doorkeepers, Messrs. Julius Taylor, Harry Farrow, W. B. Savage and Lonnie Smith; ushers, Messrs. Frank Bagg, W. D. Huhn, W. L. Bissinger, W. E. Mann, Hardy LeGwyn; programme boys, Marks Nathan and Clarence Motte. Neill Hayes, colored, will be mechanic and Luther M. McNair will, as in past seasons, serve as property man.

Wilmington theatre-goers are anticipating a delightful evening at the Opera House to-morrow night, when the theatre is opened for the season. Charles Blaney's "A Boy Wanted" will doubtless prove a big success. It is claimed by the author to be the best work he has ever written. It is a comedy in three acts, interpreted by an exceptionally strong company. The first act represents the interior of a country newspaper office, showing the press in full operation; the second the exterior of the Starview Hotel, and during this act a number of specialties are introduced. Incidental to the comedy more than forty musical members are introduced.

U. S. RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE.

Mr. J. E. Albright and family left yesterday for Atlanta to attend the twenty-third annual convention of the United States Railway Mail Service Association. Mr. H. D. Burkhimer, the other delegate from North Carolina section, expects to leave this afternoon with his wife for Atlanta.

The association will be called to order on Friday the sixth. There will be about a hundred delegates present and a profitable meeting is expected. The Fourth Division, with headquarters at Atlanta, will give the visiting postal clerks a trip to Chickamauga Park on Friday. On some other day Mrs. Ellen Terrell, wife of the superintendent of the Fourth Division, will give a reception.

BATTLING WITH THE BAT.

There was a great time at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon. By odds the most interesting game of base ball played here this season was "pulled off" between a crack team from the Nantucket crew and a team made up of the best players from the O. A. N. and A. C. L. teams. When the game was closed at the end of the sixth inning the score stood five to nothing in favor of the O. A. N. and A. C. L. team. Despite the apparent odds in the score there was a lot of "smooth" playing, and the game was chock full of interest. Mr. W. F. Robertson made an excellent umpire and Capt. W. P. Monroe, of the Fire Department, kept the score so that there was never a kick.

There was a big crowd out to witness the contest and the boys were in excellent condition for playing good ball. There were no end of rooters not only among the small boys but grown up people as well. There was one especially notable company of rooters thoroughly organized for "raising sand." They wore the red, white and blue Nantucket team colors and carried big cow bells which they rang with a vim whenever their favorits made a good play or prevented their competitors from doing so.

The people knew it would be a noisy game before they went to the park for the cow bell crew boarded a street car at Princess street and made the circuit of the belt and out to the diamond, keeping up a perfect uproar during the entire trip.

At the park the game was called for the first inning with the A. C. L.—O. A. N. combination team at the bat. The game stood one to nothing up to the fifth inning, when the O. A. N.-A. C. L. team scored five. Another score was made in the sixth inning. The pitching on both sides was very good. Sweeney and Sellers were the battery for the A. C. L.-O. A. N. team and Zellers for the Nantucket team. The following is the official record of the games:

The gate receipts amounted to $50, and there seems to be some misunderstanding about the division of the money. The A. C. L.-O. A. N. boys contend that an agreement was made before the game that the whole gate receipts should go to the winning team. However, after the game, it seems that the Nantucket boys went to the man who held the cash box and quietly took charge of what they claimed was their half of the money.

PROF. M. C. S. NOBLE.

Will Leave To-night on His Way to Chapel Hill to Take the Chair of Pedagogy.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble, ex-superintendent of the public schools, will leave to-night for Selma to visit his parents. From Selma he will go to Chapel Hill to-morrow, where he will take the chair of pedagogy in the State University made vacant by Dr. E. A. Alderman's election to the Presidency. Prof. Noble's duties will be to instruct those who wish to become teachers in the history and philosophy of education. He expects to perfect arrangements by which students will have instruction in the practice as well as the theory of teaching.

That he has been elected to so important a place is a decided compliment to his management of the city schools, and in speaking of his departure it is not out of place to refer to his work in the public schools of Wilmington. He came here sixteen years ago. At that time there were twelve hundred pupils—now there are over three thousand. His teachers are progressive and have attended excellent Summer schools during their vacation. Not long after his arrival he arranged for teachers' meetings weekly which have been found very helpful.

He is proud of his teachers, his pupils and their parents, all of whom have stood by him in his management of the schools. He is, of course, also very grateful to the school committee which has elected him to his position for sixteen successive years.

Prof. Noble says that he leaves Wilmington with sorrow. He has lived here so long that he is almost like a native-born Wilmingtonian. Although his work in the future will be away from here, he states that he will always feel the greatest interest in the education of the boys and girls of this city.

Mrs. Noble will remain in the city until about the middle of November when she will go to Chapel Hill to join her husband.

— The barge Carrie L. Tyler arrived in port yesterday from Charleston in tow of the tug John Harlin. She had a cargo of phosphate rock for the Navassa Guano Company.

— The STAR is obliged to its Shallotte correspondent for a report of the Brunswick County Democratic Convention, but as it did not differ from a report in yesterday's paper it will not be published.

Mr. J. A. Montgomery returned from Burgaw yesterday. He brings most encouraging news about Democratic prospects in Pender. Says he has reliable information that the Populist vote will be reduced by considerably over one-half.

—The order for the mustering out of the Second Regiment has been revoked. This is the news that came last night. It will cause keen disappointment to many Wilmington people who hoped to see the members of Company K home again inside of ten days.

— The telegraph news this morning shows that the First Regiment is to be mustered out and not the Second. It is stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., and will go to Raleigh to be mustered out. The Third Regiment (colored) has been ordered to Knoxville, Tenn.

— Charles Taylor, Lizzie Barnes, Ella Hunter, and George Barnes, all colored, were before Justice Bornemann yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. It developed that the arrests were the result of a family quarrel, and Judge Bornemann felt justified in letting off the offenders with costs.

— Messrs. J. G. Wright and Son., the well known real estate agents, have an ad. in the STAR this morning offering for rent from Oct. 1 some very desirable houses. They also have a number of small houses, stores and offices, and they collect rents at the lowest rate of commission. Don't fail to see their ad.

Nothing that goes to make an occasion of the kind thoroughly enjoyable will be left undone. There will be choice viands and refreshing drinks. Col. W. J. Woodward will make the welcoming address. There will be speeches also by other Pythians who rejoice in the re-election of their brother knight to one of the most exalted positions in the order. All Pythians are invited to be present.

DENOUNCING FUSION.

Middle-of-the-Road Populists in Wake County Demand a Straight Ticket.

CONVENTION MEETS SEPT. 29.

Judge Adams Nominated by Republicans for Congress—Order Mustering Out Second Regiment Said to Have Been Revoked.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., September 3.—The Insurgent Populists, forty strong, met here. Resolutions were passed denouncing fusion and demanding a straight Populist ticket. Called the county convention to meet September 29th. Ex-State Senator Green presided.

Republicans of the Fifth district, at Graham to day, nominated Judge Spencer Adams for Congress. The vote was Adams, 13; Settle, 11.

Logue Harris is back from Washington. He says accounts from this State will be paid second; Ohio coming first.

The government refuses to assign Lieut. Henderson, of Indiana, to the A. and M. College here. He cannot be spared.

A Washington special this afternoon says the order mustering out the Second regiment is revoked on Gov. Russell's request. The Second and Third will be retained and the First regiment mustered out. The special is discredited here.

LENOIR COUNTY.

Democratic Convention—A Strong Ticket Nominated—Co-operation of All White Men Invited.

[Special Star Telegram.]

KINSTON, N. C., September 3.—The Lenoir County Democratic Convention was held to-day and proved to be one of the best attended and most enthusiastic even seen in the county. The platform adopted re-affirmed the declaration and principles of the national and State platform, and recognized the importance of a white man's government, and cordially invited the co-operation of all white men to this end, regardless of earty affiliations.

Capt. W. W. Carraway, formerly correspondent of the News and Observer, of the non de plume of "D. R. Walker," was nominated for the House. An exceptionally strong ticket was named for the various county offices, and if the interest shown today indicates the amount of work that will be done, Lenoir county will again be found in the ranks of the Democratic majority after the election, as the party is united and aggressive.

MAYOR'S COURT YESTERDAY.

Six Cases Disposed Of, Some by Fines and Costs, Others Continued.

Mayor Wright was at his desk yesterday at noon and held a court during which six cases were considered. However, only three of them were finally disposed of. Rosa King, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined $7 and costs or 30 days in the lock-up. John Bell, colored, submitted to the charge of drunkenness and fighting and paid the costs. The other negro, Charles Caddell, charged with that offence was called and failed to answer. George Davis, colored, was taxed with the costs in a case for disorderly conduct.

A case for raising a disturbance was removed before Squire R. H. Bunting and will be tried Monday at 3 P. M. Another, in which being drunk and down is the charge, was continued until Monday at the request of the defendant's attorney.

The Herald's Opinion.

The Fireman's Herald, published at Greensboro announces that Chief Schnibben or Assistant Chief Monroe, of the Wilmington Fire Department, will attend the International Association which meets in St. Louis in October. The reference closes with an insistance that every chief in the State should attend and that the towns which they represent should appropriate money to pay the expenses of the chief while attending the Association. The Herald claims it would be money well invested.

Booker T. Washington.

Booker T. Washington, a widely known colored orator, will speak at St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church, colored, corner of Fifth and Red Cross streets, at 8.30 o'clock to-morrow night. He is the principal of the Alabama State Normal School, colored, at Tuskegee, Ala. His wife will speak at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Luke's, colored, corner of Seventh and Church. There will be no charge for admission on either occasion.

County Democratic Convention.

By authority vested in me, I hereby notify all delegates to the Democratic County Convention of New Hanover county to meet in adjourned session, at the Court House, on Monday, September 5th, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the General Assembly. Also county officers, and transact such other business as may come before them.

J. A. MONTGOMERY, Chairman Convention.

— The regular, bona fide mail circulation of THE MORNING STAR is larger than the mail circulation of all other Wilmington Dailies combined.

LOOK TO THE LEGISLATURE.

Since the days of reconstruction there never has been an election that approached in importance to the people of North Carolina the election to be held in November. It is of the utmost importance because then a Legislature will be elected, on the character of which the future weal or woe of North Carolina will depend.

Unfortunately, we cannot oust the present incumbent of the Gubernatorial office, for he, through the inscrutable decrees of fate, is fastened upon us for two years more, and we must simply submit to the affliction, as trying as it may be, with all the patience we can. Fortunately, as the occupant of the Governor's office is without a veto, he can do the State no material injury without the co-operation of a Legislature. He has done her harm, inestimable harm, but it was because there were men enough in the last Legislature to agree with him and carry out measures inspired by partisan scheming or by personal ambition. We cannot relieve our State of the blight of Russell, but we can elect a Legislature which will protect her, tie Russell's hands, make him powerless and a cipher for mischief. Four years of Russell is pretty rough, but with a Democratic Legislature we can stand Russell for two years more, for then it will be simply Russell without the Russellism which for the past two years has given North Carolina such an unenviable notoriety.

If we elect a Legislature this Fall it will be a comparatively easy matter to elect a Democratic Governor two years hence, for it will repeal the election laws which made it possible for the party, or rather party combine now in power to pack the registration books with imported negro ballot-box stuffers and carry elections by frauds the most stupendous ever perpetrated in this State.

There is enough to arouse the taxpayers of the State to a determination to rescue her from the infliction of another Legislature like the last, if by courtesy much strained such a mob can be called a Legislature, for the people have had to meet the extraordinary appropriations, as hard as the times were and are, made by these squanderers of the public funds, who spent in the three years they have had control nearly $400,000 more than the Democratic administration did in the three preceding years. This should be reason enough why the people should rise against them and rebuke them for the trust they abused after making such fine promises of faithful and conscientious stewardship.

When the owner of a plantation employs agents to attend to the business of managing his plantation and at the end of the year he finds the expenses of operating immensely increased without anything to show for it, does he employ that agent or those agents for another year or get rid of him or them and seek the services of men who had previously done better work and more of it for much less money? This is what every planter with sense enough to keep out of bankruptcy or a lunatic asylum would do and this is what every business man, no matter what his business, employing managers would do.

Why then should the tax-paying people who have to pay the expenses of running the State government continue to employ incompetent and faithless stewards to manage their business when they know their money has been squandered, and the burdens made heavier upon them, without anything to show for it?

A hundred and thirty-three thousand dollars a year is no small sum for the people to put their hands into their pockets and pay, with six cent cotton and other products which they had to sell correspondingly low, especially when such an extra tribute upon them was entirely unnecessary and without any shadow of excuse.

While this mongrel legislature, or mob, was doing this, adding one hundred and thirty-three thousand dollars a year to the cost of conducting the affairs of State, they looked with an eye single, and with a scandalous greed to their own interests, and scrambled with an almost ludicrous energy forevery position that had a dollar in it. Since the days of the sickening Radical orgie just after the war, when soulless adventurers and hungry native renegades raided the treasury and stole everything in sight there never was seen such a disgusting and greedy rush for places large and small as was witnessed during the last legislature when the bartering of office was the order of the day, and every man who belonged to the mongrel combine became a scrambler for himself or for some ward, or dependent or henchman. A hungry tramp begging for a cold snack would pose as a gentleman compared with this gang of legislators, in their run-over and scrouge-out race for the pie counter.

And these were the patriots, the loud-mouth "reformers," who ostensibly went to Raleigh to attend to the business of the people, who paid them for it, and paid some of them more than they ever before received in the same time or ever will again.

No people endowed with ordinary sense would, after such an experience, ever think of again entrusting such a discredited and disgraced gang with the management of their public affairs, and this from a purely businesss standpoint.

But there are other and more vital reasons why the people should look to the Legislature, to which we will refer later.

THEY ALL DO IT.

"I have said that I would never vote a fusion ticket again, but I swallow fusion now, negro and all." Those words were uttered by Jas. A. Marsh in the Populist convention last Saturday when he was nominated by that convention for county commissioner. "I swallow fusion, negro and all." What a word for a man to utter when white supremacy in our State hangs in the balance. Mr. Marsh may swallow "negro and all" now, but there comes a time when the white people of Union county will show him that the man who makes such an utterance will be repudiated. We have heard a number of good citizens express surprise and regret at Mr. Marsh's utterance, but they don't know Mr. Marsh as well as we do. Mr. Marsh will swallow a great deal for the sake of a little office. He is built that way."

As far as we know the swallower herein referred to has not achieved much fame outside of his immediate locality, but he stands as a sample. Every white man who swallows fusion swallows the negro too. It was that swallowing of the negro which has so much reversed the conditions in this State and made the negroes as assertive and aggressive as they are. The Populists who have voted for fusion have "put life into the dead hulk of the Republican party," as Populist Senator Atwater, of Chatham county, says, and that put life into the negro contingent and brought it to the front.

These fusion deals were made by the Populists machine managers, who have just made another at Raleigh, with a full knowledge of all this. They are willing to swallow the negro for the offices they may get by the swallowing, and they expect every Populist who will obey them to do the same. About the only difference between Mr. Marsh and other white-skinned men who vote the fusion ticket is that he has the candor or the cheek, whichever it may be, to own up and stand a self-confessed, unprincipled spoils hunter.

THE TRADE CLOSED.

As anticipated by those who have kept up with the movements of the engineers who are running the Republican and Populist machines in this State the trade by which they pool their issues in the coming election was closed by their respective committees at Raleigh Thursday night, or rather Friday morning, for it was one o'clock in the morning before they closed the deal. As this was simply a trade for the offices the people of either of the parties were not supposed to be interested and were therefore not consulted.

The Populist committee which participated in this deal had previously submitted a proposition to the Democrats accompanied by certain conditions upon the acceptance of which they were willing to fuse with the Democrats. Practically this proposition embraced acceptance of the Populist platform and an agreement to give the Populists all the offices, federal and State which they now hold. Very properly it was promptly rejected by the Democratic State convention to which it was made. The question may now be asked, did the Republican machine managers swallow the whole thing or only the part of it which provides for dividing the spoils.

The sum and substance of this whole business means that these Populist dickerers who profess to be in favor of free silver, against trusts, monopolies, &c., agree to support goldbug candidates who are in favor of the gold standard, trusts, monopolies, &c., and the Republicans who favor the gold standard, trusts, monopolies, &c., agree to support candidates who are opposed to all that and to nearly everything else that they believe in, and yet these mercenary traders in votes have the brazen effrontery to talk about "principle."

"NO TIME TO TALK ABOUT PRINCIPLES."

That is what S. Otho Wilson said when Mr. Wynn, an anti-fusionist of Wake county, said that fusion with goldbug Republicans was against the principles of the Populist party. S. Otho Wilson is the leader of the anti-Butler faction of the Populist party. He has been a trader from the word go and thoroughly unscrupulous as to his methods to attain his ends. Such a man is not expected to have any regard for principles or to have any patience with people who may have more conscience than he has, or who object to bartering principles at the dictates of greed for office.

S. Otho has played his game so long and with so little opposition that he has come to regard himself as a sort of mogul, and expects Populists to quietly let him and others in collusion with him fix up the jobs, and then endorse and vote for them without question, because that means a stronger pull on the Republican party for Otho, and a chance either to be elected to some office which he wants or to get some federal job later if he should fail in being elected. Like Senator Pritchard, if he ever had any principles, he holds them "in abeyance" until he sees how the office-grabbing business pans out. When deals are on it is "no time to talk about principles," which, to say the least of it, is candid on the part of S. Otho.

POINTS POLITICAL.

NEGRO SCHOOL COMMITTEEMEN.

This county has several negro school committeemen who help to look after our white schools. They have the privilege of going into the school houses where white ladies teach and asking them such questions as they think proper about the conduct of the schools.—Sanford Express.

ALL WHITE.

The white men of No. 12 Township, Edgecombe county, irrespective of party, met in this town last Saturday and organized a White Government Union. A committee of five was appointed to report on organization of the Union at the next meeting, which will be on the first Saturday in September.—Rocky Mount Argonaut.

TOO MUCH NIGGER IN IT.

Mr. W. F. Edwards, editor of the Lemon Springs Hustler, was in town last Monday. He says he has voted the Pop. ticket ever since that party has been in existence, but that there is too much 'nigger' mixed with it to suit his fancy now. He will vote Democratic next time.—Jonesboro Progress.

A STAMPEDE IN WAKE.

The prospects for a Democratic victory in Wake county grow brighter every day. The most encouraging reports are being received from every section of the county. Three well-informed gentlemen from the northern end of the County said last night that the desertions from the fusion forces in that section of the county amounted to a stampede.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A DECOY DUCK.

Dr. R. M. Norment, independent Republican candidate for Congress from this district, was here last Saturday and asked for a division of time with Wetmore, Dockery and Cade, but no division of time was made. Dr. Norment spoke to a small crowd in the court house Saturday night. The doctor is a decoy duck and we predict that he will be whooping for Dockery before the campaign is over.—Monroe Enquirer.

Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. a bottle at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. †

I'M GROWING OLD.

JOHN G. SAXE.

My days pass pleasantly away;
My nights are blessed with sweetest sleep;
I feel no symptoms of decay,
I have no cause to mourn or weep;
My foes are impotent and shy,
My friends are neither false nor cold;
And yet of late I often sigh—
I'm growing old!

My growing talk of olden times,
My growing thirst for early news,
My growing apathy to rhymes,
My growing love of easy shoes,
My growing hate of crowds and noise,
My growing fear of taking cold,
All whisper in the plainest voice
I'm growing old!

I'm growing fonder of my staff,
I'm growing dimmer in the eyes,
I'm growing fainter in my laugh,
I'm growing deeper in my sighs,
I'm growing careless in my dress,
I'm growing frugal of my gold,
I'm growing wise, I'm—yes—
I'm growing old!

I see it in my changing taste,
I see it in my changing hair,
I see it in my growing waist,
I see it in my growing heir,
A thousand sighs proclaim the truth,
As plain as truth was ever told,
That even in my vaunted youth
I'm growing old!

Ah, me! my very laurels breathe
The tale in my reluctant ears,
And every boon the hours bequeath
But makes me debtor to the years!
E'en flattery's honeyed words declare
The secret she would fain withhold,
And tells me in "How young you are!"
I'm growing old!

Thanks for the years, whose rapid flight
My sombre muse too sadly sings;
Thanks for the gleams of golden light
That tint the darkness of their wings,
The light that beams from out the sky,
Those heavenly mansions to unfold,
Where all are blest, and none may sigh,
I'm growing old!

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY,

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes, Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No, 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhœa in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

BROADCLOTH, which is in great demand for early fall costumes, especially in the various late effects of brown, is the material of a handsome gown made up with rich flowered moire of new design. While the outlines of many of the French corsages are more severe, there is much diversity in the varied forms of jacket and fancy waists. Plastrons also, in great variety, are continued. The jacket front of this gown laps far to the left side, where it is fastened with three large silver buttons. In this instance the jacket forms a portion of the waist, being sewn in with the shoulder and under-arm seams, and opening over the flowered silk plastron. The brocaded moire is introduced again, like an inverted V, into the front of the skirt which is circular in form and is banded with narrow bias folds in imitation of a shaped flounce, its width at the bottom being four and a half yards. The back may be pleated or gathered. While many of the new skirts are made over a perfectly fitted foundation, the circular models are usually lined throughout in order to preserve their form better.

The sleeve of this gown illustrates one of the newest designs, from which the epaulette has entirely disappeared. Two bias folds cross the close top. This gown is taken from HARPER'S BAZAR, and cut paper patterns can be obtained from that paper.

The hat of brown-tinted felt, rolling high from the face, is effectively trimmed with a cluster of roses and foliage.

Quantity of material for gown—5¼ yards wool 52 inches wide; 1¼ yards silk.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Murfreesboro Index: Mr. Henry L. Hill died at his home in Boykins, Aug. 25th, of kidney disease, in the 49th year of his age. —— In the death of Dr. Roswell Lynden Cowper, Murfreesboro loses a well known citizen. His death occurred Wednesday at one o'clock, after a week's illness of congestion of the lungs, aged 74 years.

—Monroe Journal: Chief of Police Ashcraft arrested a negro here Monday for drunkenness and fighting. On his person was found a good new pistol and quite a quantity of jewelry. The jewelry, consisting of buttons, watches and chains, was new and still had the owner's cost mark on it, and was evidently stolen. The owner has been found to be Mr. J. C. Paysuer, of Lancaster, and his store was robbed.

— Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer: Mrs. Ellen Glass, relict of the late Dr. W. H. Glass, died at her residence in Wadesboro Friday, August 26th, in the 81st year of her age. Mrs. Glass had been in declining health for a long time, and her death has been expected for several months. —— Walter Alford, formerly of this place, but now of Rockingham, shot a negro in the latter place Wednesday. The negro was cursing out the white people generally and was advancing on Alford with a knife when he was hot. It was at first thought that the negro was fatally wounded, but it is now believed he will recover.

— Columbus News: Farmers bring very discouraging reports of the conditions of the cotton crop, owing to the continued rains, which have caused it to shed, in some places its entire foliage. —— Three papers were probated and recorded here this week on which there were $8,547.50 worth of revenue stamps. They were a mortgage, a deed and a release of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta railroad. The consideration mentioned in the deed was $1,748,000. —— Messrs. Calder Bros., are putting in an improved cotton ginning outfit at the depot, consisting of three gins and a cotton ginning outfit and suction machinery for handling cotton automatically. It has a capacity of about forty bales per day. They have a splendid flow of artesian water to supply the boiler.

FRENCH HUMOR.

M. Francisque Sarcey and His Grotesque Effigy In the Carnival.

It is often said that Frenchmen lack humor and dread ridicule, but M. Francisque Sarcey has given an example of that humorous good sense which defies mockery. At carnival time in Paris it is customary to exhibit on the boulevards grotesque effigies of well known public men. A modest stranger called on M. Sarcey to tell him that his image was to figure in the procession.

"Very good," said M. Sarcey. "What can I do for you?"

"Well, if you would be so kind as to lend us some of your veritable garments, they would make the likeness all the stronger."

"No doubt," responded the critic blandly. "In that cupboard you will find several hats."

"Oh, the veritable hat will not do! You see, your head—I mean the head of the effigy—is enormous."

"Tres bien. Take a coat, then."

Dressed in the veritable coat, the Sarcey dummy was an immense success. It seemed so strange to literary Paris, however, for a man to aid and abet the caricature of himself that M. Sarcey has volunteered an explanation, which is a delicious bit of humor. "Lamartine," he remarks, "would not have consented to lend his coat for such a purpose. He was a poet with a sensitive soul. So was Victor Hugo. But what would you? We cannot all be Lamartines and Hugos. Why should we poor journalists, who have no feelings to speak of, deny ourselves to the populace when we can contribute to their harmless amusement? Besides, they may not always think it worth their while to notice us.

"An agreeable trifler came to me the other day and asked my permission for the use of my name in a burlesque. I gave it cheerfully. 'This may be the last time,' said he. 'What do you mean?' I asked. 'Well, you are going out of date, and next year you may not be worth a laugh!' "—Exchange.

Millions Given Away.

Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on R. R. BELLAMY, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, September 3.—The cotton market opened barely steady, with January unchanged and other months one to four points lower. Following the call the trading basis was two to three points under the final figures of yesterday with business exceptionally light. The easier feeling was directly due to a weak set of English cables. Considering the weakness abroad, our market exhibited a relatively steady front. Reports of further heavy rains in the eastern portion of the cotton belt and bearish crop accounts generally checked bear selling and led the more confident bulls to increase their holdings in a small way. Speculation was very slack late in the forenoon with the close quiet at a net loss of three to five points.

THE SHIP'S RUDDER.

Its Two Parts and the Difference In the Strain That Comes Upon Them.

The rudder of a wooden ship is composed of the stalk and the backing, which are so joined together as to form in effect a single piece. The complete rudder is coppered, to protect it from worms, and then, besides being practically all in one piece, it has that appearance also.

The stalk is the part to which are attached the pintles, or pivots, by which the rudder is suspended and held in place, these going through eyes set in the ship's sternpost. The stalk runs up through the stern of the ship, and to its head is bolted a cap to which are attached the ropes by means of which the rudder is controlled. The backing is the blade part of the rudder.

By far the greater strain comes on the stalk, and the greatest strain of all comes on the head of the stalk, the rudder head, where it is held. The stalk is made of the wood most likely to stand the strain, carefully selected, sound, well seasoned oak, while the backing is made of spruce or hard pine. The stalk is of a single, solid, massive piece, stout as an oak tree and indeed of the dimensions of a small oak, something that a man can pin his faith to, if he can have faith in any wood, while the backing or blade is, like many modern wooden masts, built up. It would be difficult if not impossible to find trees that would yield planks big enough for the purpose in a single piece, and the built up backing, made of pieces of selected wood, can easily be made of ample strength to withstand any strain that will be brought upon it.

As to the stalk, stout and solid as the oak may be, the head may be twisted by the force of a tremendous blow from a wave upon the rudder, or, under the repeated strains of long use, the head may split, and so make the stalk useless. Then the rudder is taken out and fitted with a new stalk. A suitable stick is selected and worked down to the proper size and form, and very probably the old backing is attached to it. The life of a rudder stalk would probably be 12 to 14 years. The backing might last as long as the ship.—New York Sun.

CAUSES OF POVERTY.

Hard Condition of Humanity That Is Established by Nature.

"The Causes of Poverty" is the subject of a paper by the late Francis A. Walker in The Century. General Walker says:

In the first place, I should without hesitation say that easily chief among the causes of poverty is the hard condition of the human lot as by nature established. The prime reason why bread must be so dear and flesh and blood so cheap is that the ratio of exchange between the two has been fixed in the constitution of the earth, much to the disadvantage of the latter. When it is written that God cursed the ground and bade it be unfruitful, bringing forth briers and thorns, that man should only eat his bread with a dripping brow, the Scripture does not exceed the truth of the unceasing and ever painful struggle for existence.

Taking it by and large, it is a hard, cold and cruel world, in which little is to be got except by toil and anguish, and of that little not all can be kept by any degree of care and pains. There are indeed regions where the earth spontaneously brings forth fruit enough for a small population and where a moderate effort will largely increase that product, while the climate is so benign that life is easily protected from exposure, but these are not the regions where man ever has, or seemingly ever can, become a noble being, and even here, in the midst of tropical plenty, the serpent stings, the tiger prowls at night around the village, the earthquake and the tornado work their frightful mischief, cholera and malaria kill their millions, while every few years gaunt famine stalks over the land, leaving it cumbered with corpses.

Throughout all the regions inhabited by our own race life is a terribly close and grinding struggle. From four to seven months the earth lies locked up in frost, and its wretched inhabitants cower over the scanty fire and try to outlast the winter. When summer opens, it is to a harsh soil that the peasant resorts to win the means, scanty at the best, of barely preserving life. Sterility is the rule among the soils of earth, mountain and plain alike. The exceptions are a comparatively few fertile valleys in which are concentrated the productive essences of nature. The literature of primitive peoples is ever telling the story of this unceasing wrestle with the hard conditions of existence, and the same dreary tale is repeated down to our own day. Alcman, the Greek, calls spring "the season of short fare," and less than 40 years ago the Irish peasant spoke of "the starving season" which immediately preceded the harvest of the year. If, then, you complain of poverty, make your complaint manfully and squarely against the Maker of the earth, for poverty is largely his work. The socialist is simply dishonest when he charges human misery upon society. Society has done vastly more to relieve misery than to create it.

A Penny Saved.

When Benjamin Franklin wrote "A penny saved is a penny earned," he did not mean a penny skimped from our daily living or from our necessities. That is not "a penny saved" in the best sense. It is a penny stolen from yourself. A penny saved is a penny rescued from waste. An hour taken from needed sleep is not an hour saved, but an hour stolen. An hour taken from idle gossip and turned to some good account, that is an hour saved. And it is the same way with our money and our products. There is no economy in self denial. It is the duty of every man and woman to live the fullest and best life possible, to get the most they can out of life, to nourish the body and mind and soul and to develop them to the highest possible degree. This cannot be done by "skimping." A fuller, freer life is what we need. Economy is necessary, but we must not mistake what economy is. We must save the wastes, stop the leaks, but, having saved, we must put our savings to some good use, else we are like the miser with his gold—a detriment to society instead of a good.—Philadelphia Ledger.

His Own Medicine.

"I believe it to be a fact," remarked the spindle shanked young man, "that persons become to some extent that which they habitually feed upon."

"Then why don't you eat freely of veal?" asked his elder sister. "You haven't nearly as much calf about you as you ought to have."—Chicago Tribune.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for womanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life ot any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR.

Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

B. G. Worth, of the Worth Co.; R. W. Hicks, wholesale grocer; C. E. Borden, president of Navassa Guano Co.; W. L. DeRossett, commander of N. C. Division Confederate Veterans, and John C. Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

RUNNING SORES

CURED BY USING

Botanic Blood Balm (B.B.B.)

The Great Blood Remedy.

In either boils or their more aggravated form of carbuncle it surely indicates a diseased condition of the blood, which should have prompt attention on the appearance of the first symptoms. Eat the best you can get, and freely use Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.). This medicine will scatter the boils and heal the diseased flesh in a few days. Mrs. W. J. Steed, of Augusta, Georgia, had boils for several years past, as well as a carbuncle over the right eye. This spring she felt the symptoms of boils coming on again. While sewing she would prick the skin with her needle. The little sores would fester. Her blood was in a terrible condition. She took two bottles of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.), and was entirely cured, and she passed the spring without the annoying boils and possible return of a carbuncle. Her blood was relieved of poison matter by B. B. B., which is a powerful blood remedy. It is purely vegetable.

Running Sores or chronic ulcers are most frequently found on the leg. The real cause is in a diseased condition of the blood. Happily there is a cure in Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.). Years ago Dr. Gillam used B. B. B. for running sores, and no case since ever failed to yield to its marvelous power. We have over 400 testimonials of successful cures from B. B. B. of running sores. We give one or two.

Walter Bridges, of Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard of without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefitted."

J. D. Watkins, Blakely, Ga., writes: "Old sores covered my entire person and itched intensely night and day. For several months I could not work at all. I commenced the use of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) and began to grow better the first week, and am now sound and well, free from sores and itching, and at work again.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is a scientific vegetable compound used by Dr. Gillam in his private practice for blood diseases, such as Old Sores, Scrofula, Boils, Blood Poison, etc. It cured so many people that it was put on the market, and is for sale by all druggists at $1 per large bottle, or 6 bottles sent, charges prepaid, on receipt of $5. It has always enjoyed a large sale because it even after everything else has been tried in vain. Books of cures sent free of charge.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.,
Nov. 12, 1897.

H. E. Thompson, Providential, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—A month ago you sent me a box of the Jackson Springs Water—twelve bottles. You know how fearfully I was suffering with an acute bladder trouble some weeks before. When I reached home I found the water awaiting me. I have rested and drank that water. I am a new man—my old self practically; my appetite restored; and the tenderness in the bladder has disappeared. I think it is a wonderful water. I had been using for weeks before all sorts of lithia water, but the Jackson Springs Water went to the spot.

With profound gratitude, I am,
Yours Respectfully, &c.,
CALVIN S. BLACKWELL.

The Doctor further says, it is "the best, I think, God has let run out of the earth for afflicted humanity."

This Water is unsurpassed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Prostration, or any Kidney, Bladder or Stomach Trouble.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 4.

URGING ANNEXATION.

The Better Classes of Filipinos Will Not Submit to Spanish or Tagal Rule. Welcome Stars and Stripes.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, September 3.—A Hong Kong deputation, representing the Southern Philippines and consisting of the best and richest natives of Panay, Mindoro, Cebu and Mindanao, visited United States Consul Williams yesterday evening and urged that every possible effort be made for the annexation of the whole of the Philippine islands. The deputation declared that all classes, the warlike mountaineers as well as those engaged in mercantile pursuits, would welcome the stars and stripes and had resolved never to submit to Spanish or Tagal rule. They also said there were four thousand men, many of them armed with rifles, near Iloilo, ready to support the Americans. The refuse to join in the clamor for independence, which they consider a mistake and impracticable. They only wish for annexation to the United States.

Aguinaldo remains at Bakoor. He recently wrote an impertinent letter to General Otis, which resulted in his receiving a sharp snub. The insurgent leader will probably render himself amenable to the American authorities.

FIRST NORTH CAROLINA.

Ordered from Jacksonville to Raleigh to be Mustered Out—The Third Regiment to be Retained in Service.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 3.—A bulletin was issued by the War Department to-day announcing additional regiments to be mustered out of the service. Adjutant General Corbin said that, in all probability, few if any other troops would be relieved from duty at this time. Included in the organizations to be mustered out is the First North Carolina, fifty officers, 1,160 enlisted men, from Jacksonville to Raleigh.

In connection with the orders mustering out named regiments, it is significant of the government's intention to retain many of the volunteer troops in the service that orders were issued transferring thirteen regiments from their State camps to the various camps of mobilization throughout the country. It is understood that the orders were issued with a view to the retention in the service, perhaps until next Spring, of the organizations named in the orders. Among the regiments included in the orders is the Third North Carolina (colored) from Fort Macon to Knoxville.

MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD POPS.

National Convention to Meet in Cincinnati Monday—Policy for 1900 Will Be Outlined.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.—The middle-of-the-road Populists will hold a national convention here next week, beginning Monday at 10 o'clock and continuing indefinitely until the work of reorganization of the party is completed. The convention is called by the national committee of which Milton Park, of Dallas, Texas, is chairman, and which was chosen at the Nashville conference, July the 4th. At the same time there will be a meeting of the National Press Reform Association, which is strongly in favor of bolting and of having an independent organization and an independent ticket. An address will be issued to the people scoring the Populists' National Committee for its fusion record, charging the committee with arbitrary treatment at the general conference in Omaha, June 17th, in turning down the anti-fusion proposition for a national convention, and a special appeal will be made for the reorganization of the Peoples Party. While no nominations are likely to be made, yet the policy for 1900 will be outlined and the presence of Wharton Baker of Philadelphia, and of Thomas Watson of Georgia, indicates that there may be preferences expressed for the national ticket in 1900. Secretary Parker announces that all Populists opposed to fusion are invited to co-operate in the convention.

ANGLO-GERMAN AGREEMENT.

Germany Prefers That England Rather Than France Should Hold Egypt—An Understanding as to Africa.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BERLIN, September 3.—The officials of the German foreign office assert that the London reports of an offensive and defensive alliance having been concluded between Great Britain and Germany are entirely without foundation.

The British ambassador here, Sir Frank C. Lascelles, was asked if an agreement between Great Britain and Germany concerning Africa had been reached. He said:

"Such an agreement already exists. Germany prefers that England rather than France should hold Egypt, although all that Germany expected from the English occupation has not been realized.

"An Anglo-German understanding regarding the rest of Africa also exists. The recent meetings between Mr. Balfour and Count Von Hatzfeldt dealt with other matters."

SPAIN'S COMMISSIONERS.

Announcement of Appointments Made by the Madrid Cabinet.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MADRID, September 3.—It is currently reported that the Spanish ministers, at yesterday's cabinet meeting, definitely selected the three following peace commissioners: General Rafael Cerero y Saenz, general of engineers; Senor Eugenio Montero Rios; Senor Villaurutia, under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The Carlists declare that after protesting in the Cortes against the policy of the government they will withdraw.

CAMP WIKOFF, MONTAUK POINT.

President McKinley Spent Five Hours Visiting the Sick in Hospitals.

MADE A GOOD IMPRESSION.

Gen. Wheeler Introduced the President to the Soldiers—Mr. McKinley's Reply. The Soldiers Cheered His Remarks—Gen. Shafter.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CAMP WIKOFF, MONTAUK POINT, September 3.—President McKinley spent five hours in the camp to-day, bareheaded most of the time, visiting the sick in the hospitals and inspecting the well in their cantonments. He made a speech to the assembled infantrymen, reviewed the cavalrymen, expressed his opinion of the camp to the reporters and issued an order directing the regulars to return to their stations east of the Mississippi.

After greetings and introductions on the railway platform, the President took General Wheeler's arm and went to a carriage. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, of the Rough Riders, was among the group of horsemen near by. Mr. McKinley saw him and got out of the carriage to speak to him. Colonel Roosevelt hastily dismounted and, tussled with a gauntlet for fifteen seconds, so that ungloved he might shake hands. The column of carriages wound up a hill, escorted by the Third cavalry regiment and the mounted band of the Sixth cavalry. The party paused a moment on the hill and the President looked out on the wide, undulating cape, water bound on either side and whitened on the levels and hill tops by the tents of 18,000 men, laid out in geometric lines.

Mr. McKinley drove to General Shafter's tent in the detention camp. The general, who was flushed and weak from a mild case of malarial fever, was in full uniform, sitting in a chair at the door of the tent. He tried to rise, but Mr. McKinley said: "Stay where you are, General. You are entitled to rest."

The President congratulated General Shafter on the Santiago campaign and after a few minutes rest, proceeded to the general hospital. The soldiers recently arrived on transports and detained in the detention section of the camp lined up irregularly on each side of the road and cheered. Mr. McKinley took off his straw hat then, and scarcely put it on again for more than a minute.

Miss Wheeler, a daughter of the general, happened to be in the first row of the hospital tents and she showed the President through her division. General Wheeler announced in each ward: "Boys, the President has come to see you," or "Soldiers, the President of the United States."

Some of the soldiers slept on, unconscious, some listlessly raised upon their elbows, others feebly clapped their hands. Mr. McKinley gently shook hands with many, and at every cot he paused an instant, and if he saw the sick man looking at him he bowed in a direct and personal way.

When seemingly all the wards of the general hospital had been gone through and the President was about to get into a carriage, Attorney General Griggs detained him. "Miss Wheeler has told me," said he, "of a Lieutenant Prado, who is in a tent back here by himself, and he is in a dying condition. He has asked about your coming, and Miss Wheeler has promised that you shall see him." "Certainly. Let us go to him," Mr. McKinley said:

The others of the party discreetly remained outside the tent. The President reappeared with the nurse a minute or two later. His eyes were moist and downcast.

As it was inconvenient to go back to the doors of the long tents, Mr. McKinley said he would go through the frame work at the ends of the tents and jump down. The general hospital is on a slope, and the height of the floors from the ground increased with each ward. At ward F the jump was nearly six feet. Mr. McKinley took it. Vice President Hobart, who is a bulky man, hesitated. "I balk here. Can't go over this hurdle," he said. Neither would Secretary Alger, who had taken all the jumps until then. But General Wheeler sprang lightly down. To-day was hot, Mr. McKinley wore a black frock coat with a waistcoat. The perspiration streamed from his face. A glass of Apolinaris was offered to him but he declined to drink, saying that he was too warm. He proceeded to the infantry plain, as it is called. The men of the Ninth Massachusetts, the First Illinois, the Eighth Ohio, the Thirteenth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second and Tenth regular infantry were assembled without arms. About 5,000 men stood in close order.

General Wheeler Said:

"The President of our great country has come here to greet the soldiers that marched so gallantly up San Juan hill on July 1st. He comes here to express the nation's thanks to these brave men. I wish to tell you that when the President sent me here two weeks ago to command this camp he enjoined me in the most emphatic language that I should, without regard to expense, exercise any and every authority necessary to make comfortable this body of brave men, who by their courage have raised this republic to the highest position among the great nations of the earth. I have the honor and pleasure of introducing to you, the President of the United States.

President McKinley Said.

General Wheeler, soldiers of Camp Wickoff, soldiers of the Fifth Army Corps—I trust that you will put your hats on—I am glad to meet you. I am honored to stand before you to-day. I bring you the gratitude of the nation to whose history you have added by your valor a new and glorious page. You have come home after two months of severe campaigning which has embraced assault, siege and battle, so brilliant in achievement, so far-reaching in results, as to command the unstinted praise of all your countrymen. You had the brunt of battle on land. You bore yourselves with supreme courage, and your personal bravery, never before excelled anywhere, has won the admiration of your fellow citizens and the genuine respect of all mankind, while your endurance under peculiar trial and suffering has given added meaning to your heroism. Your exertions made easy the conquest of Porto Rico under the resistless army commanded by Major General Miles, and behind you, to proceed at a moment's summons, were more than two hundred thousand of your comrades, ready to support you, disappointed that the opportunity which you had did not come to them, yet filled with pride at your well-earned fame and rejoicing upon your signal victories.

"You were on the line of battle; they, no less than you, were in the line of duty. All have served their country in its need, all will serve it so long as they may be required, and all will forever have the thanks and regard of a grateful people.

"We cannot bid you welcome here to-day without our hearts going out to the heroes of Manila, on sea and on land, whose services and sacrifices whose courage and constancy in that far distant field of operations have never been surpassed by any soldiers or sailors the world over. To the army and the navy, to the marines, to the regulars, to the volunteers, and to that Providence which has watched over them all, the nation to-day is full of thanksgiving and praise. The brave officers and men who fell in battle and those who have died from exposure and sickness will live in immortal story and their memories will be perpetuated in the hearts and the histories of a generous people, and those who are dependent upon them will not be neglected by the government for which they so freely sacrificed their lives."

The soldiers cheered many times. The part of the field where the Eighth Ohio stood, the regiment which is sometimes called "the President's own" was particularly noisy. The party then went to the detention hospital. The grave yard in which sixty or seventy plain new wooden crosses stood was near the road on the left. The President solemnly raised his hat.

In the Detention Hospital.

Mr. McKinley went through all the wards of the detention hospital in the same careful way in which he had gone through those of the general hospital. When he came to the last ward, Major R. T. Ebert said: "This is a dangerous ward," and turning to Secretary of War Alger, inquired: "Do you think the President had better go in here?"

Mr. McKinley, without waiting to hear what General Alger's reply would be, started into the ward. General Alger and the others of the party remained outside.

The Presidential party then drove through the lines of cavalry drawn up on either side of the road. Among them were the Rough Riders, the Second, Sixth, Ninth, Tenth and First regular cavalry. The Third regulars were still acting as the President's escort. Mr. McKinley then drove to General Wheeler's headquarters and sat under the shade of a tent fly for a while. Secretary Alger and General Wheeler were with him.

The President and those with him took lunch with General Wheeler and his staff. After lunch the President, Mr. Alger, General Wheeler and Colonel Hard, of the Eighth Ohio, were photographed in a group.

The President issued an order directing that the regular troops at Camp Wikoff whose posts are east of the Mississippi should return with the least possible delay to their posts.

PORTO RICAN ADVICES.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SMOKELESS POWDER.

Bids Opened for Supplying the Warships With One Million Pounds.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 3.—Probably the navy has fought its last war with black powder. Bids were opened to-day at the Navy Department for supplying the new warships with one million pounds of smokeless powder, a quantity sufficient to supply at least the secondary batteries of all the ships in the service, and this supply will be augmented from time to time, until within the course of a year or two all the black powder will have been retired, except possibly some that will be retained for saluting purposes. There were six bids received to-day at the department and opened by Judge Advocate Lemly in the presence of representatives of most of the bidders, prominent among them being Mrs. Maria Dittmar, head of the powder concern bearing her name. The bids on an average were about the same as the navy is now paying for its powder and slightly below the figure paid by the army under the emergency created by the war.

The recent storm which swept the Baltic sank a German torpedo boat and severely damaged the whole German torpedo flotilla. Five of the torpedo boats barely reached harbor.

ENGLAND'S WAR IN THE SOUDAN.

Report That the Anglo-Egyptian Forces Have Captured the City of Khartoum.

HEAVY LOSS ON BOTH SIDES.

Dispatches From Sir Herbert Kitchener Give Detailed Account of the Advance of the Army and Encounters With Dervishes.

By Cable to the Morning Star

LONDON, September 3.—A report which lacks confirmation is current here this evening that the Anglo-Egyptian forces haved captured Khartoum. It is stated that the loss of the Anglo-Egyptian army is two thousand men, while that of the Dervishes is is placed at eight thousand.

11 P. M.—Up to a late hour this evening no confirmation of the report of the capture of Khartoum had been received at the foreign office of the war office.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Evening Telegraph in its three o'clock edition, this afternoon, published a brief dispatch saying: "All the forts of Omdurman have been destroyed. Great success; no casualties."

The British war office to-day received a dispatch from Nasri, on the Nile, saying that a gunboat had returned there and had reported that there were no casualties among the Anglo-Egyptian forces; that the right bank of the river had been completely cleared of all forts; that the forts on Tuti island, opposite Omduram, had been demolished, and that the guns had been captured.

The war office later in the day received another dispatch from General Sir Herbert Kitchener by way of Nasri. It was not dated and read as follows:

"Owing to the wet weather the lines have been broken and telegraphic communication has been interrupted. Am sending this to Nasri to be forwarded.

"The march has been very favorable. Practically none has fallen out of the ranks or been invalided. From Jobel Royan we marched to Wad El Obeid, thence to Sayal and thence to Surarat. This morning we reached Egina, a mile and a half south of Kerreri, six miles from Omduram. The mounted camel corps with a horse battery pushed forward to Korshamba, whereupon the dervish force issued from Omduram and were clearly visible. I estimated his force at 35,000 men. They advanced at 11 A. M., as if to attack us, to meet which I disposed of our force in a good open position, with a clear field of fire. The Khalifa's force had halted three miles southwest of our position and is now there, at 5 P. M.

"Early this morning, according to orders, the gunboats advanced, towing a howitzer battery and barges, in support of the Arabs on the right bank. The howitzers took up a position opposite Omduram and the gunboats bombarded the forts. They have not returned, but their fire has partially domolished the dome over the Mahdi's dome. All well."

YELLOW FEVER SITUATION.

Nine New Cases Officially Reported at Orwood, Miss.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 3.—The Marine Hospital Service has received a dispatch from the State health officer at Taylor, Miss., stating that there were nine new cases of yellow fever at Orwood. With twelve cases heretofore reported this makes a total of twenty-one at that point. Surgeon Carter, of the Marine Hospital Service, arrived to-day at Orwood to take charge, and has begun an investigation.

JACKSON, MISS., September 3.—Nine new cases of yellow fever were reported by the board of health to-day from Orwood. One case has developed at Waterford, a small village five miles east of Water Valley. The board regards the situation as rather serious. There are now twenty-two cases at Orwood. One death has occurred.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DETROIT, MICH., September 3.—A Free Press special says that the whole business portion of Owosso, Mich., one hundred miles west of here, is endangered by a fire which is now raging. Up to 11.30 the followiag firms had been burned out and the fire was not yet under control:

Woodward's furniture factory, consisting of a three-story warehouse, kilns and lumber yards, totally destroyed, loss $100,000; the Owosso Brewing Company, loss $35,000; Crowe & Payne's implement store, loss $10,000; William Joshlin's livery establishment and several smaller buildings aggregating about $25,000.

The fire department from Corunna is assisting in fighting the flames.

GOLD IN THE TREASURY.

The Total Reserve the Highest on Record, Amounting to $220,916,282.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 3.—The gold in the Treasury is steadily climbing upward, and to-day again broke a record with the total reserve of $220,916,282, the highest in the history of the reserve fund. United States Treasurer Roberts, speaking of the upward trend of the gold in the Treasury, said that out of about $40,000,000 yet to be paid in for the new war loan, it is likely that $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 will be in gold. It would not be at all strange, he said, if, before the tide turns, our total gold will be considerably over $250,000,000.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Government Steamboat Destroyed by an Explosion Near New Orleans.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, September 3.—The government steamboat John R. Meigs was totally destroyed by an explosion at Fort St. Philip to-day. She had on board Lieutenant Jervey and a party engaged to removing the torpedoes laid in the Mississippi river during the beginning of the war. Lieutenant Jervey had a narrow escape. The killed were Captain Starr, commander of the boat; Sergeant John Newman, of the engineers; Pat. Carlos and Ralph Rogers. Those wounded were Fritz Koch and D. B. Reddy.

The condition of Miss Winnie Davis was not improved yesterday. The intense heat is exhausting her strength.

THE STORM-SWEPT SECTION.

More Wrecks Reported—Rivers Still Rising—First Train From North in Three Days Arrives in Savannah.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAVANNAH, September 3.—Two more wrecks were reported to day off the entrance to Calabogue sound. Both were dismasted schooners. There were no signs of life on either vessel. The coast is being patrolled in the hope of rescuing the crews of some of the wrecked vessels, but except the crew of the barque Noe, none are known to have been saved.

On the storm-swept section of the coast the loss of property is increasing. The miles of water on the lowlands are being added to by the floods in the river, and the waters everywhere in the flooded district are rising.

The first train from the North in three days reached here this afternoon, bringing the mails that have been accumulating north of the overflowed territory. The Central Georgia railroad, the Georgia and Alabama, and the Florida Central and Peninsula railroads are still blocked.

The Savannah and Ogeechee rivers are rising rapidly and are likely to cause heavy damage when the flood reaches the low country.

THE RIEDSVILLE MEETING.

Four or Five Thousand People Attend the Great Democratic Rally and Barbecue—The Country Aroused.

A gentleman who formerly resided in Wilmington but who now lives in the West, in a private letter gives the following encouraging news under date of September 2:

"It was my pleasure to attend the great Democratic rally and barbecue at Reidsville, September 1st. They had the best order I ever saw, and if any one thinks the people in this part of the State are not interested, they ought to come and see. I talked with one old gentleman—82 years old—who said the last Populist had disappeared from his neighborhood, and every one I spoke to about the matter would say the Pops are getting back where they used to be. During the last ten days I have been in Moore, Harnett and Chatham, and unless people are telling lies, there will be a change up this way in November. One gentleman, always a Republican, from Chatham, told a friend in Greensboro, last week, that Chatham county would go Democratic as sure as there was an election. I talked with a minister to-day who was at the speaking, and he said if the State at large was as it was where he had been, it was bound to be redeemed. I have been following up the campaigns since Vance ran for Governor in 1876 and I never saw the people show the interest and the determination they are showing now so long before the election. I'll tell you, Jarvis, Watson, Brooks, Kitchin and others made the people think at the mass meeting at Reidsville Thursday. It has been a long time since I saw such a political gathering—there were four or five thousand people—but if I live, I expect to see another next Thursday at Asheboro, Randolph county.
